

HUW LLOYD-LANGTON'S LLG – NEW ALBUM

'HARD GRAFT'

RELEASE DATE 27th AUGUST 2010
PRE-ORDERS ARE NOW BEING TAKEN

The long awaited new LLG album 'HARD GRAFT' is to be released by Allegro Music as a limited edition on 27th August 2010. The CD will contain a full-colour booklet including lyrics, behind the scenes information and a selection of illustrations by Huw. A deal has also been signed with State51 Conspiracy for 'Hard Graft' to be released at the same time on 27th August as a worldwide digital download platforms to include iTunes, Amazon, Napster, eMusic etc.

The album is dedicated to the exceptional musician Tim Rice Williams pianist, keyboards & synth player who died of cancer 2 weeks after completing his work on this album. The other artists appearing on this album are Bass Player Richard Gillespie, Drummer Volker Von Hoff and Huw Lloyd-Langton. The tracks are a mix of haunting songs, guitar wizardry and solid playing from the rhythm section plus 3 bonus blues tracks by Huw.

This is the first studio album since the release of 'Chain Reaction' in 1999. Hard Graft will be followed shortly with a live LLG DVD from the Hawkwind all dayer at The Assembly, Leamington Spa 2nd May 2010. It will contain Huw's acoustic set and LLG's set. Release date to be advised.

Over the next 2 years there will be a series of previously un-released LLG material put out i.e. a double live album, three Live DVDs to include separate concerts at The Marquee in London, various Studio recordings and a series of singles of Huw unplugged. Plus freebies will also be added to download from Huw's official site.

Pre-orders are now being taken for the Hard Graft CD via paypal. The order form is on the Audio page of Huw's web site (below).

*Note all information given on the order form remains confidential and will not be shared outside Allegro Music. For pre-orders the money sent to the paypal account remains secure until orders are processed.

<http://www.huwlloyd-langton.co.uk>